Not everyone can be Ashley Morales

Port St. Lucie – Devereux Community Based Care of Okeechobee and the Treasure Coast congratulates Ashley Morales for winning the organization's first Going the Extra Mile Award, Emerald Division.

Morales – a dependency case manager for Children's Home Society, which provides case management services to Devereux CBC's system of care – was nominated by her supervisor, Stacey Wickett.

"Ashley is the true definition of a team player," Wickett said. "She is the eye of the storm and maintains composure in the most stressful of situations."

In fact, Wickett said, a local therapist recently remarked that "not everyone can be Ashley Morales."

The Going the Extra Mile – or GEM – Award was created this year by Devereux CBC's Outreach and Activities Committee as a part of a developing employee appreciation campaign.

Christine Winter received the award in the Ruby Division, which is set aside to recognize the work of administrative staff. The Ruby Division recognizes case management staff.

Others nominated for the award include Jody Boyer, Jill Poole and Melanie Baculima in the Ruby Division, and Roxette Ojeda, Myra Medina, Whitney Hughes and Stacey Wickett in the Emerald Division.
