Fort Pierce supervisor Lymar Shaw receives Supervisor of Excellence award

Port Saint Lucie – Lymar Shaw, Case Management Supervisor for Devereux CBC, was awarded the Supervisor of Excellence Award this month in recognition of his dedication to child welfare and the staff who report to him.

The award honors supervisors who demonstrate a commitment to the agency's core values, who instill pride and foster personal and professional growth.

It is given every year to one supervisor from each member or affiliated agency of the national Devereux Foundation. Devereux CBC is independent of Devereux Foundation but still recognized as part of the national family.

Shaw, who works out of the St. Lucie County service center, in Fort Pierce, was nominated for the award by staff because he is a “leader who stands behind his team.” He has been with Devereux CBC since 2013, serving as a dependency case manager until he was promoted to supervisor in 2014.

Devereux CBC Chief Executive Officer Carol Deloach said Shaw is a good representative of the organization and its mission to ensure the safety, permanency and well-being of children.

“He supports his and other units fully and creates a great team and working environment while expecting quality and excellence,” she said.
