November is National Adoption Month

Adoption professionals celebrate a month of Amazing Children throughout November

National Adoption Month kicked off November 1 with the launch of "30 Days of Amazing Children" - a statewide campaign that aims to educate Floridians about the adoption process and share stories of children available for adoption. Below is an excerpt from one local teen's adoption biography:

One of the first things you'll notice about lovely Verica is her warm smile. She has been described by those close to her as friendly, caring, talkative and funny, with a mature sense of humor well beyond her years. In her spare time, Verica enjoys shopping, eating out and listening to music.

Verica has progressed in many areas of her life during the last year, and she will continue to blossom with the right support system. As with many teens, school can be a bit of a challenge for her, although she really enjoys math. However, Verica puts forth a lot of effort and has shown great improvement.
