Hard work and dedication pay off for these young people

Port St. Lucie – Devereux Community Based Care is proud of the Road to Success program and of the young people whose hard-work and dedication make it successful. Here are just a few of their successes this month:

Anthony Williams, who will graduate with his Associates Degree from Santa Fe College in December, recently received an acceptance letter from the University of Florida. He will attend the school in January and pursue a bachelor's degree in journalism.

In other news, Local Florida Youth SHINE member, Janice Goldsberry, was elected to the Statewide Florida Youth SHINE Board as the events and marketing chair. Youth SHINE is a youth-run, peer-driven organization that empowers current and former foster youth to become leaders and advocates within their communities.

And Anthony Nadeau, also a student in the Road to Success program, recently traveled to Boston after being asked to judge a prestigious national high-school debate competition.

Road to Success is a program of Devereux Community Based Care that prepares teens and young adults for life outside the foster-care system.
