Devereux CBC board chair says goodbye

Port St. Lucie – Devereux Community Based Care Board Chair Steven Murphy bid adieu to fellow board members in November, and then passed the legacy of his four-year leadership to Vice Chair Russell Hamilton.

Murphy thanked the board for giving him the opportunity to lead and for working together to improve a local system that was in a deficit posture in 2013.

“This organization has come a long way,” he said. “We’ve overcome a lot of challenges, and now we’re doing really well.”

Improvements, he said, include financial stability, leadership in statewide decision-making and, most important, performance measures of permanency, safety and well-being for children.

On behalf of staff, Chief Executive Officer Carol Deloach presented Murphy with a plaque of recognition. The next Board meeting is scheduled for January 23, when Mr. Hamilton will begin his tenure as chairman.

Steven Murphy receives recognition for his service to Devereux Community Based Care.
